

Chinese Language and Culture Class

Chinese teachings that emphasize traditional values such as family, honor, respect and moderation

This class is designed for adults and children (3-5 years) interested in learning the Chinese language and culture through songs, literature, and hands-on activities. Adults and children spend the first 50 minutes learning together in interactive activities. The two groups will then be separated for a more targeted learning experience. Parents and their children are encouraged to enroll at the same time. Adults are also welcome to attend classes without children and bring along others who may be interested.
